DETAILED ACTION

General Comments

This application has been transferred to Examiner Gregory W. Adams.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 31, 32, & 64 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Nakamura (US 5,906,472). Nakamura discloses all of the claim limitations in a similar device in FIG. 5, the device comprising a(n): Casing KAS, movable retaining elements 12A-B, floating plate 14, and a C-shaped channel (FIG. 3).

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 25-30 are allowed over the prior art of record.

Claims 34, 65-73 objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed October 18, 2005 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. With respect to claim 31, Applicant's arguments are drawn toward what the device does. For example, the applicant argues that Nakamura's apparatus "is not moveably positioned in the storage container and does not push the trays out of the container. Rather, Nakamura's elevator is positioned outside the storage container to move trays from the engagement hooks to the tray carrier." Applicant is respectfully reminded that claim language consisting of functional language and/or intended use phrasing is given little, if any, patentable weight as the apparatus must merely be capable of functioning, or being used, as claimed. See MPEP 2112.02, 2114. In this case, Nakamura's floating plate is certainly capable of pushing trays. Nakamura discloses all of the claimed structural limitations and therefore anticipates the claims. Further, Applicant's argument that Nakamura does not disclose the limitation of a "moving plate movably position in a storage container" is without merit because claim 31 does not recited a storage container.

Conclusion

1. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
